Merit Badge Workbooks are a tool to aid Scouts with their work preparation. BSA discourages — but does not ban — the use of any merit badge worksheets or workbooks. Merit badge counselors must NEVER require the use of merit badge worksheets or workbooks and may if they choose, refuse to accept them. Scouts shall not be required to use ANY of these to complete a merit badge.

REQUIREMENT 7a: Write an instruction sheet that includes all of the information needed to play the game. Clearly describe how to set up the game, play the game, and end the game. List the game objectives.

Choose your own or consider the following template for completing this requirement

Game Name:

Ages and Number of Players:

Game Objective: Tell how the game “works,” including ultimate objective.

Game Contents: List ALL components and indicate if it’s a deck of cards or a sheet of cards to be punched out; a free-standing game board or a game board to be punched out, a bag of tokens or a sheet of tokens to be punched out, etc....

Game Assembly: How do you assemble the game for the first time?

- Is assembly required? If yes, what?
- Are drawings required? If yes, of what parts?
- Batteries? If yes, size, number and where do they go? Back? Bottom?

Game Setup: How do you set up the game for each playing?

Game Play:

- Which player goes first? How is that determined?
- Does play pass to the left? If not, what is turn order?
- Define terms (if necessary)
- Turn Sequence: On a player’s turn, what is the sequence of actions?
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - etc....
- Special conditions: Example: What if you land on another player?
- Board Spaces: What happens on special spaces?
- Special Cards: What do they do?

Winning:

- How is the winner determined? Do you have to win by exact count?
- What if there’s a tie?

Gameplay Variations:

- For a harder game
- For 2 players (or any number other than 4)
